DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicants' amendment filed March 19, 2004 has been entered. Claims 1 and 12 have been amended. No new claims have been added. No claims have been canceled. Claims 1-13 are pending in the instant application.

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

2. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on March 19, 2004 has been entered.

Reasons for Allowance

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art does not teach or suggest a process for measuring and recording the thickness of a polymeric automotive trim panel having a thickness of between 0.001 and 0.5 inches including, providing a holding form having essentially the same shape as at least a portion of said trim panel, wherein the portion of the holding form which corresponds to the region of the trim panel material to be measured is metallic and is in contact with the outer surface of said automotive trim panel, contacting the inner surface of the material at a first position with a shielded inductive sensor and generating a first signal representing the thickness of the material at said first position, contacting with said shielded inductive sensor the inner surface of the material at a second position and generating a second signal that represents the thickness of the material at said second position and, generating a cross-sectional thickness profile of said material as between said first and second positions.

In view of the species election requirement mailed May 21, 2003 and the allowance of generic claims 1-2 and 5-7, dependent claims 9-11 are rejoined and allowed for the same reasons as set forth above.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
